

CWL National Conference,
25 - 28 July,
Brentwood, Kilbirnie.

The Australian collection.

Valma Ivory, Australian National President presenting her report to Conference and being thanked by Kay Blackburn, retiring NZ National President.

From left to right:
Sandy O'Donohue, Valma Ivory, Peg McEntee, Shona Cobham, Moira Gardner, Ann Pereira.

The Australian delegation singing their entertainment song at the dinner, Friday evening July 27th, Brentwood, Kilbirnie.

To the tune of *Glory, Glory, Alleluia

I went to Catholic Women's League
 To help them out one day
 I must have done a decent job
 'cos I was asked to stay
 I said I hadn't got the time
 To do the job quite right
 Then the Officers assured me
 It would only take one night

Chorus

*That's the reason I'm a Member
 That's the reason I'm a Member
 That's the reason I'm a Member
 'Cos the Officers assured me
 It would only take one night*

The Regional Meeting came along
 And I was asked to go
 The Treasurer was poorly
 And so she didn't show,
 They asked me if I'd take the job
 And I replied that I might
 Then the officers assured me
 It would only take one night

Chorus

I saw the National President
 Working in a tent
 I went to help and then she said
 My dear, "You're Heaven sent!"
 I need a Branch Advisor
 And I know your time's just right
 And I really do assure you
 It will only take one night

Chorus

Now I've worn my little badge so long
 My blood is almost blue
 My family think I'm mad
 And maybe so do you
 It keeps me out of mischief
 And it wouldn't seem quite right
 If the work I did for the League
 Only took one night.

Chorus