

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR EMPLOYEES AND VOLUNTEERS in the Catholic Church in Aotearoa New Zealand

October 2018

skills and expertise that employees and volunteers bring to their role is vital to the life of the Church, is very much appreciated. All those who undertake work for the Church, whether paid or unpaid, are representing the Church and there are expectations for the way they perform their role.

"Code of Conduct for Employees and Volunteers" sets out these expectations of behaviour. Employees and volunteers are asked to read and sign this Code of Conduct to acknowledge, understand and accept these standards of conduct.

Church Employee or Volunteer I agree that:

will be honest and trustworthy.

will seek support if asked to do something beyond my experience, qualifications or comfort-zone.

will comply with all policies and procedures provided to me during my work.

will treat everyone with respect and courtesy.

am personally accountable for my decisions and actions in helping to create a safe and supportive environment within my Church community.

will avoid any activities that could bring the Church or my Church community into disrepute.

will ensure my actions are not affected by my personal interests or relationships will follow safeguarding procedures when I am with a child or group of children, or providing ministry or service to any adult.

will respect the rights of people to privacy and confidentiality, and confidential information will only be shared with others with the informed consent of the person, unless there is clear danger to them or to others.

will take all allegations of harm or abuse seriously and will follow our reporting procedures.

understand that I also have the right to report any concern or allegation of abuse or harm directly to the Police or Oranga Tamariki (Ministry for Children).

will honour the principles of Te Tiriti o Waitangi in my work. I will be respectful of other people's cultures.

If my behavior or conduct is considered to be in breach of any aspect of this Code of Conduct, I understand that consequences may include a requirement to apologise, training, a performance improvement strategy, warnings, or dismissal.

If I do not understand any aspect of this Code of Conduct, I will speak to my manager, supervisor, or strategy leader.
